It is asserted by some of Butler's friends that the eighteen pages spoliated from Booth's diary contained evidence regarding the preparations for the assassination, and the reasons for the abandonment of the abduction plot. The fact is, however, that all the evidence that has ever been elicited in regard to this diary goes to show that it is now in precisely the condition in which it was when taken from Booth's body. Detective Baker once affected a knowledge of the contents of these missing pages, but when brought to a pointed examination he could remember nothing that he had read.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

At 5:30 the doors were re-opened. A message was received from the House announcing its action on the adjournment resolution. The Senate insisted on its disagreement, and agreed to a Conference Committee.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MARYLAND MATTERS.

The SPEAKER presented the resolutions of the Maryland Republican Convention.

Mr. FERNANDO WOOD remarked he had in his possession the proceedings of an indignation meeting, recently held in New York, in reference to the refusal of the Republicans in the Legislature to grant suffrage to the colored people, and asked whether, if sent to the Speaker, they would be submitted to the House?

The SPEAKER declined to anticipate the question of order.

Mr. THOMAS spoke in support of the Maryland resolutions, utterly denying that there was any Republican government in Maryland. It was an engine of infamous tyranny and oppression, which no free people should submit to. He believed Congress had the power and should pass an enabling act giving equal laws to the people of Maryland.

Mr. ELDRIDGE characterized this claim as monstrous.

Mr. BROOKS argued that the same inequality of representation complained of in Maryland existed in Maine, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, etc., and real republican government existed in no State. In Tennessee and Missouri there was no more republicanism than existed under the Pasha of Egypt or the Sultan of Turkey. The Senate of the United States was a body existing in utter defiance of all republican forms of government, for Nebraska had equal representation there with Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. The proposition of the gentleman from Maryland would amount to the subversion of the whole structure of the government to the consolidation of a despotism of the worst kind.

Mr. ROBINSON denied that the Constitution gave any such power to Congress.

After further debate, the resolutions were referred to the Judiciary Committee.

ON ADJOURNMENT.

Various propositions looking to the adjournment of Congress were introduced, the House finally agreeing to adjourn at three o'clock to-morrow until the 5th of June.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Mr. INGERSOLL introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States, providing that all male citizens over twenty-one years of age, having the qualifications of electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature in their several States, shall be entitled to vote at all elections without disqualification on account of race, color or previous condition. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

TRANSPORTATION FOR PROVISIONS.

Mr. BINGHAM introduced a joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish transportation for provisions to be sent from Baltimore to Wilmington, North Carolina, for the relief of the destitute people of the South.

INCREASE OF IMPORT DUTIES.

Mr. BROOMALL introduced a joint resolution for raising the rates of duties on imports. Referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

BILL TO REPEAL.

Mr. MILLER asked leave to introduce a bill to repeal the bankrupt law.

Mr. CHANDLER objected.

IRON CLAD CONTRACTS.

Mr. LOGAN introduced a joint resolution relative to contracts for building the iron-clad Camanche, which was amended by giving the contractors $179,000 for their losses, and adopted.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED.

The SPEAKER announced the Select Committee on Southern Railroads: Messrs. McClurg, Mercer, Washburne, (Ind.), Chandler and Sawyer.

EIGHT HOUR BILL PASSED.

Probable Murder of a Child—Remains Found.

Yesterday afternoon at about one o'clock Mr. Richard Moran was employed throwing sand upon some lime on a building lot belonging to him on Mercer street, in the Sixth ward, when he discovered the dead body of an infant partially covered up in the sand. The corpse was brought out and proved to be that of a child apparently over a year old. The body was considerably mutilated by hogs, but showed no signs of decomposition. A considerable quantity of light hair covered the skull. The mouth was open and contained several teeth. The remains were entirely naked. They were removed to Mr. W. H. Devore's undertaking establishment on Grant street, and Coroner Clawson summoned. It is probable that a foul crime has been committed, and any person able to furnish the slightest clue to the mystery should report at once to the Coroner. If any one knows of a child having disappeared, or of any facts that may lead to the identification of the remains, let them come to Coroner Clawson, and report. The following is the testimony elicited at the inquest yesterday afternoon:

Richard Moran, sworn—Live in the Sixth ward, Fulton street; have a lot fronting Mercer street; had a couple of loads of sand put there a week or two ago; was digging over the sand to-day to cover some lime; saw, after a while, the feet of a baby; dug it out and called Mr. Jordan; we put the baby on a board and covered it up; sent word to the Coroner; Patrick Mooney came with a wagon and took the corpse away; the child in this office is the one found; found it about one o'clock; know nothing as to how the child got there; heard nothing of a child being missing; a few days ago some baby's clothes were taken from a privy at No. 57 Fulton street; the clothes had sand on them; they did not seem big enough for this child; the clothes mentioned were found on Saturday; they were nicely tied up and seemed to be new; they were not marked; the child was naked when I found it; it was not buried entirely; the corpse had been mutilated, apparently by hogs.

Patrick Mooney, sworn—Live on Mercer street; saw the child after it was found; saw Mr. Moran talking with Mr. Jordan, and Moran called me; the child lay partially behind some rubbish that was piled near the fence; I laid it on a board; came down to Mr. Devore's to find the Coroner; have not heard a word of suspicion as to who the child might be.

Dr. G. L. M'Cook, sworn—Made a post mortem examination of the child; it was much mutilated by the hogs, so that it was difficult to determine the sex; it is a male child; found congestion of the lungs and of the liver; discovered no marks of violence; the death, however, had evidently been sudden; the marks of disease were sufficient to indicate that the disease would cause death; the child may have been smothered; that would produce the same signs of congestion; the child appears to be about ten months old; there is no evidence of violence; the death was certainly rapid; the child has apparently been dead about ten days; there is no decomposition apparent; the child was a white one with light hair.

Adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Mayor's office.

A Happy Ending.

Another disturbed love affair came to a happy ending yesterday, and in a place where pleasant things might be anticipated, the office of Alderman John A. Strain. The story of the affair is brief. Miss Sarah Jones is the daughter of a well to do farmer of Baldwin township, and is a prepossessing young lady. In July last she made the acquaintance, at a picnic at Glenwood Grove, of a young man named Peter Wilmot. The acquaintance thus begun grew rapidly to intimacy. Shortly after the first meeting, the young man, as is now stated, applied to the lady's father for permission to address the daughter with a view to marriage. The permission was granted, and from that time to within two weeks past, the attentions of Mr. W. were unremitting. About two weeks since the attentions ceased, and were not renewed. The reason of the cessation of the lover-like addresses was apparent to the distressed girl, and when, a few days ago, she became convinced that her lover had permanently abandoned her, she confessed to her mother that she had loved with too confiding an affection. Subsequently she came before Alderman Strain and made information against Wilmot for seduction. The defendant was arrested, and the hearing in the case fixed for yesterday afternoon. The parties met at the appointed time, and the matter was talked over by them. The result of the conversation was a determination on the part of the defendant to repair, so far as possible, the wrong he had done, and save the girl from shame. Accordingly the suit was withdrawn and the parties joined in matrimony.

Brought Home on a Requisition.

A man named Isaac Eba was brought to the city yesterday afternoon by Chief Bernard Campbell, of Harrisburg, who had arrested him at Columbus, Ohio, on a requisition from Governor Geary. Some time ago Messrs. Bucher & Kurtz, merchants of Lebanon, Pa., made information before a magistrate against Eba, charging him with having concealed and removed property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. It is alleged that he was indebted in a large amount to the deponents, and that he had secretly removed two hundred carriages, which were intended to secure the debt, to Columbus, Ohio, and had himself taken up his residence there. The removal took place some eighteen months ago, and in the meantime two or three ineffectual attempts have been made to arrest the accused. Chief Campbell found him living handsomely in Columbus, and married to a music teacher of the city. He arrested him without trouble at four and a half o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, and started away with him at one o'clock yesterday morning. On arriving here the prisoner was locked up until ten o'clock last evening, when the officer and his charge left for the east.

Desertion of an Infant.

The West Chester Republican says: About eight o'clock on Tuesday evening of last week, a male child about seven or eight days old, was found lying upon the door steps of a citizen of this borough. It was discovered by two ladies who were passing along the street. Upon taking it into the house it was found to be very much exhausted, and Dr. J. B. Brinton was at once sent for, who administered to its necessities. Its supply of clothing was very limited, and to which was pinned a small piece of paper, with the following written thereon:

"This child is poor, but respectable. It is of poor but respectable parents. Take it in and raise it as your own. I will watch over it." [Signed,] ITS MOTHER.

This child was well provided for by Mrs. Hiram Hannum, who very humanely and kindly consented to receive it and provide for its present necessities; but, notwithstanding the tender care bestowed upon it, it died the next morning about six o'clock.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Emilie Melville's engagement is an absolute success. The audiences which she delights with her beauty and genius increase nightly, and become more and more enthusiastic. Last evening the "Somnambulist" was the attraction, followed by "Sketches in India." To-night Miss Melville will take a benefit, and a capital bill is announced—"Joan of Arc" and "Pocahontas." Miss Melville is acknowledged to be the best Pocahontas in the country. She played the character for a great number of consecutive nights in New York with John Brougham, who complimented her in the highest terms, pronouncing her the very best artist in that character. Let her be greeted with an overflowing house.

VARITIES THEATRE.—Miss Florence Temple and her trained horse continue to be the dashing attraction at this capital place of amusement. They crowd the house nightly and fill the audiences brimful of enthusiasm and enjoyment. For an evening of rare entertainment go to the Varieties.

Robbery.

Some two weeks since a trunk belonging to a Mrs. Christy, of Ohio, was shipped upon the A. V. R. R. for Kittanning, but owing to some oversight was carried past, and taken to Emlington on the steamboat Petrolia, and during its passage on the boat the trunk was broken open, and robbed of various articles of wearing apparel. A negro, named L. P. Murphy, employed on the Petrolia, was suspected of the robbery, and he was arrested on Monday, upon a warrant issued by Mayor Brown. The goods were found in his possession, but Mrs. Christy refused to prosecute him, and he was discharged upon the payment of the costs.

Refused.—The Washington Reporter has this: We learn that the Supreme Court, after an inspection of the record in the Fogler case, has refused to allow a writ of error to remove it to that tribunal, not seeing anything in the ruling of the Court below that needed revision. Whatever hope the prisoner may have indulged on this score, no one, save perhaps himself and counsel, expected the Supreme Court to interfere. There is therefore nothing now left to the wretched but to prepare to meet his end.

Neat Job Printing.

Messrs. Errett & Anderson, the well known job printers, GAZETTE Building, Fifth street, have associated with them in the business Mr. D. B. Ferguson, who has long been the business manager of the establishment. The new firm has greatly increased its facilities for plain and fancy steam job printing and blank book making. A large force of skillful hands are employed constantly, and work entrusted to Errett, Anderson & Co. will be promptly attended to in the best style of art, and at the most reasonable prices. We wish the new firm even greater prosperity than that which has long been awarded the old established office, and commend them to the patronage of any of our readers who may need anything in the way of job printing or blank books.

Alleged Robbery.

Yesterday morning about one o'clock a man living in the Diamond was conducting himself in a disorderly and drunken manner in the Rush House, and after being remonstrated with, was thrust out at the door. He states that immediately after being thrust out he was knocked down and abused by a party of men who stood on the pavement, and when he released himself from them, he was minus his gold watch and his pocket book containing about twenty dollars. He does not know the parties who perpetrated the outrage.

The Haymakers in Costume.—A grand musical treat is in store for our readers on Thursday evening, April 4th, at the Academy of Music, on the occasion of Miss Ernest's concert. This talented lady will be assisted by her scholars and a number of our amateur performers, among whom we observe the name of Mr. F. W. Heslop, whose abilities are well known to the community. The rendition of the Haymakers (in costume) by such able and talented vocalists will prove the crowning musical entertainment of the season. We trust an overwhelming audience will greet the performers upon the occasion.

The Trouble in Turkey.—The Thanksgiving season is not here, and James Turkey thinks there is no reason why his kind should be killed, so he made information before Alderman Strain, charging William Shoat with surety of the peace, basing his charge on threats made by Shoat against his life. Whether Shoat proposed to gobble Turkey, or whether he was only going to coop him up is not shown. Shoat was arrested and stuck in the sum of $300 bail for a further hearing.

Damages and Repairs.—The fence belonging to Wilson Jones, in East Deer township, was maliciously torn down not long since, and Jones charges Charles Williams, a neighbor, with tearing it down. Information was made before Alderman Strain, charging Williams with malicious mischief. He was arrested, and subsequently the suit was withdrawn, the defendant paying the costs and promising to repair the damages done.

Rich Garnet Jewelry in pins, ear-rings and finger rings, all of the most fashionable style, offered at very reasonable prices, at the well known jewelry store of Reineman, Meyran & Siedle, 29 Fifth street. The general stock of jewelry found at this establishment cannot be surpassed by that offered by any similar house in the city. A new lot of rich gold and silver headed canes, suitable for present making, just received.

Broadway Exchange.—Among the respectable and well kept restaurants of the city is the Broadway Exchange, on the corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, Vierheller & Roessing, proprietors. All the delicacies of the season are served up in the best style, at all hours. The firm has just taken out a new license under the new law, and are determined to keep a first-class and respectable saloon.

Larceny of a Watch.—William Johnson yesterday came to Alderman Strain's office and made information against Solomon Sloan for larceny. The parties reside in Mifflin township, and the deponent alleges that the defendant stole from him an English Bull's Eye silver watch worth $30. The defendant was arrested, but after a hearing was discharged, there being no sufficient evidence to hold him.

Correction.—In our report of the proceedings of the late meeting of the Allegheny Councils we credited Mr. Drum with language reflecting upon Senator Graham. That gentleman did not intend his remarks to bear upon Mr. Graham but upon Mr. Bigham. We cheerfully make the correction as it was our fault that the speaker was placed in the position of reflecting upon the wrong man.

The Distillery of Jesse B. Hank, with some thirty-six barrels of whisky, located at Montgomery station, in Lycoming county, was libelled in the United States Court on Thursday, for alleged frauds in making returns under the Revenue law, to the amount of over three thousand dollars. The parties were cited to appear on the 15th proximo.

Refused to Testify.—Thomas Williams was summoned by the Mayor, yesterday, to testify at the hearing of a charge of assault and battery against George Kirkpatrick and others. He utterly refused to testify, and was committed to jail until such time as he shall come to terms.

Struck Her.—Barbara Slacker, of Pitt township, made information yesterday, before Alderman Strain, charging John Shane with assault and battery, alleging that the defendant struck and otherwise abused her. The defendant was arrested and held for a hearing.

A Horse, one of a fine pair of bays, whilst being driven across Liberty street at St. Clair, yesterday, caught his left fore foot in a rail on the track of the Pennsylvania road, and twisted the hoof almost off. The accident will render the horse almost valueless.

Jacob's Patent Aluminum Pens, London.—We have tried these pens and find them better than any we have before used. They are said to be almost as durable as gold, and not subject to corrosion. For sale at Davis, Clark & Co., 93 Wood street.

Leg Fractured.—By the falling of a large box, which he and another man was carrying on the Monongahela wharf, Thursday forenoon, a laborer named Dougherty, residing on Point street, had a leg broken.

Heart Disease caused the sudden death of George Hartz, aged forty-three years, at his residence, in Lawrenceville, early Thursday morning. He leaves a wife and four children. Coroner Clawson held an inquest.

Scalded.—A little daughter of Jacob Niehauser, in Birmingham, aged about five years, was badly, and it is feared fatally, scalded on Thursday morning by the upsetting of a kettle of hot water.

Refused to Pay Taxes, to the amount of fourteen dollars, was the cause of the committal to prison yesterday, of John Barshley, by Collector Joseph Irwin, of the Fifth ward.

Captain Jacob Baltzell, convicted of an attempt to kill his wife and father-in-law was taken to the Penitentiary yesterday. An effort will be made to secure his pardon.

The Moulders' Union.—Attention is directed to the card of the Moulders' Union in our first column.

POLITICAL.

New York Constitutional Convention—Republican Organization in North Carolina—Colored Voters Invited to Participate in Political Meetings in Tennessee—The North Carolina Union Convention.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 28.—A Republican State Convention will be held at Syracuse on the 10th of April, to select delegates at large for support in the election of April 23d, for members of the Constitutional Convention.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 28.—The Republican party of North Carolina was organized to-day. The Convention numbered one hundred and thirty delegates from organizations effected on the fundamental grounds of union, liberty and equality.

NASHVILLE, March 28.—The leading conservatives propose that colored voters shall be invited to participate in political meetings, and send delegates to the Convention which meets in this city next month to nominate a candidate for Governor. The proposition is encouragingly received, and will probably be adopted.

The colored voters are invited to send representatives to the Republican Congressional Convention, called to meet in Nashville on the 16th of May next.

John Trimble, who has already announced himself as a candidate, will doubtless be nominated. It is not known who the Conservatives will run.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 28.—The Union Convention of whites and blacks, after two days session adjourned. They adopted some Republican resolutions, and eulogized that party, in the overthrow of rebellion; they should command the respect of every candid man; Congress was entitled to the thanks of the world for their constant devotion to human rights as set forth in the Declaration of Independence; cordially accepted the reconstruction plan, and rejoiced that the dogmatical side is overthrown; supreme allegiance to the Federal Government, not States, with a reservation; endorsing the civil rights bill and impartial suffrage without property qualification or distinction of color; praising Lincoln; favoring universal freedom, and demanding free discussion and free speech on public matters; pledging maintenance of national credit; inviting all political persuasions to unite with them in behalf of the principles avowed. Fifty-three counties were represented by half whites and half negroes. The Convention was harmonious.

River Telegrams.

CAIRO, March 28.—Advices from below say the levee opposite Gov. Roman's plantation has broken, and the surrounding country is being inundated. The levees below the above mentioned point are in bad condition and are liable to give way at any time.

REFORM IN ENGLAND.

It is perfectly wonderful, judging from the accounts derived through a certain order of men, to know how many times a nation can stand on the very brink of a fearful precipice and not fall off, and how often it can be absolutely and irretrievably ruined, and yet be full of lusty life and entering upon new phases of development with unsurpassed security and vigor. According to the tory organs, England has been on a precipice and been pushed over into the chasm below, "times and ways without number," by those terrible radicals, who are deficient in respect for antiquity, and sanguine in their ability to improve upon the fathers. At this moment, England is represented as being on the precipice again, and in the utmost danger of a fall that shall crush the life out of her. The radicals are demanding an extension of the right of suffrage, not to blacks, for specimens of the ebony race are so uncommon in "the fast anchored isle" as to be real curiosities; but to what are known as the middle and lower orders of white men. In other words, universal suffrage is demanded, not as a gratuity or favor, but as a natural and indefeasible inheritance, long withheld because "on the part of the oppressor there has been power." It is interesting and instructive to notice what dire mischiefs are predicted as sure to follow, if the industrial classes are permitted to participate in selecting members of Parliament. Either the English tories have borrowed all the objections of American Democrats against Universal Suffrage, or else American Democrats have drawn their weapons of opposition thereto from the armory of the British tories.

The aristocratic class of England, on certain memorable occasions, did good service to the cause of civil liberty by wrenching from the Crown concessions, not only to their own order, but yielding advantages to the masses of the population. The monarchs invariably protested they were guilty of a sort of sacrilege, in thus invading prerogatives coming directly from the Almighty. But these protestations were unheeded. The aristocracy continued their encroachments on the established domain of the Kings, until they virtually absorbed all substantial power, leaving the occupant of the throne only a shadow of authority, and compelling him or her to act as a puppet in their hands. All this was favorable to civil order and personal liberty. But the final solution could not be reached by this process. While the rule of an oligarchy yielded compensations in denuding kings of their ancient authority, it did not establish government on a basis accordant with natural justice.

The people now seem resolved to make reclamations of the aristocracy. Of course that distinguished body are offended and distressed. It was pleasant enough for them to strip the Kings. It is not agreeable to be stripped themselves. If they can be left alone their situation is decidedly comfortable. There are many aristocracies in the world, but none that will compare with the English, either for wealth, or dignity, or power. Nothing is more natural than that, having a "good thing," they should seek to hold on to it. Indeed, it is easy to see they have held their places so long, and by such unanimous and unbroken consent, that they feel their title thereto to be as valid as any other title whatsoever. But the question is one that cannot be adjudicated by their feelings. The masses of the people have feelings as well as they, and show a determination to have them taken into the settlement.

The aristocracy are aware they must make concessions. Their lamentations show how profound their convictions are on that point. But they mean to give up just as little as they can with safety. Such has been their uniform method. But in this they are short-sighted. The broadening of the basis of representation so as to afford standing room for a hundred thousand new voters, instead of making a settlement, will only give the reformers a coigne of vantage for fresh agitation, which they will not fail to use. Manifestly the English people, without distinction of class, must and will be represented in the government, not by a pleasant fiction of law, but in deed and in truth. The sooner the aristocracy cease to oppose, the better will it be all round.

In response to our proposition to discard party politics for a season, in order to secure the passage of a genuine Free Railroad Law, the Chambersburg Repository says:

> "Will the proposition of the Gazette mend matters? It has been tried before without even for a fortnight arresting the tide of corruption that swells in, about and over the legislature. The position of the Democrats in the present legislature fully warrants the assumption that the disregard of the wishes of the people is confined to no one party. We can understand how the Gazette may bring retribution upon the Republican party for the perfidy of its representatives, but it would at the same time bring to power a class of men no better in point of integrity, and false besides to every national interest."

Does our contemporary mean to imply that representative government is a failure? that no choice remains but submission to "the tide of corruption," or the disbanding of the Legislature and inaugurating a dictator?

We do not understand how the betrayal of promises publicly made touching State interests, gives assurance that the pledge breakers will be true to any "national interests." So long as they are without power to act, they may, indeed, "keep the word of promise to the ear," on national topics; but give them power and they will prove unreliable. Some of these betrayers want the republican organization kept intact, because they seek promotion by means of it to places in which they will be required to deal exclusively with "national interests." It ought to be understood that the republican organization cannot be used to such end. We prefer an honest Democrat shall succeed Mr. BUCKALEW rather than a pledge-breaking Republican. This latter, under temptation, would prove a duplicate of Mr. COWAN, than which nothing could be worse.

GEN. BUTLER, in his rencounter with Mr. BINGHAM, plainly intimated his belief that President JOHNSON was in the conspiracy which resulted in the death of President LINCOLN. If he has evidence that warrants this incrimination, he has a duty much more serious than launching accusatory harangues in the House of Representatives.

WE are informed that the iron boilers at Kittaning, Pennsylvania, are at work at the reduction asked, viz: Seven dollars per ton.

ENCOURAGEMENT.

The wholesome discipline to which we have felt constrained of late to subject the Commercial, on the question of railroads, already bears excellent fruit, richly compensating for the diligence and knowledge expended therein. When the bill came up to increase the capital stock of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, we explained that the augmentation was desired, among other reasons, in order that the Company might compete successfully for the trade of the Pacific slope, of China, and of India, bringing it, in great part at least, across the continent, by way of Pittsburgh, instead of letting it all take the northern route to New York. At first our contemporary was impatient, restive and intractable as an ass's colt. It did, indeed, admit we made a display of "valuable information," but it was not ready to confess that the statistics we adduced clinched our argument so firmly that it could not be shaken. After a time the storm of its wrath abated, and it mellowed most surprisingly. Yesterday it went so far as to state that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has actually offered ten millions of dollars for the Missouri Pacific Railroad, and explains to its readers that this was done "with a view to making St. Louis the terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad and a direct line across the continent via Terre Haute, Indianapolis, the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne or Pan Handle, and Pennsylvania Central." Nor did it stop with this formal announcement. It went on to express the opinion, derived from the table of distances we presented for its instruction, that "such a line would present advantages superior to any other." Nay, it relaxed its wrath towards the Pennsylvania Railroad Company so much as to declare, "We take real pride in contemplating its magnitude and the enterprise at the bottom of it." That will do for the present. So long as our contemporary evinces a disposition to discard its errors we shall not urge it beyond what is reasonable.

—There is a good deal of human nature in the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. We do not see how it can well be otherwise so long as its stockholders and officers remain men, and deal with sublunary affairs. When these people get translated, and to a better sphere, as we trust they all may, in due season, they will have less of the selfishness of earth, and more of the charities of heaven, in their composition. Notwithstanding all the talk we hear about disinterested benevolence, we do not find an overstock of it in practice. Taking men as they are, it is presuming a good deal to insist that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company shall invite competition, or submit to a competition it can legitimately avoid. The business men of Pittsburgh, after all they have professed in the matter of Freedom in Railroad Building, are not exemplarily tolerant of projects for new lines, the effect of which must be to divert trade from this locality. It is not in human nature they should be. However much men may possess and enjoy, they always want more. And this is not a vice, but an excellence. Men were not made to fill themselves, like cattle, and then lie down and ruminate. They were created with insatiable aspirations, and hence the desire for new and greater attainments is perpetual. Herein is the propelling force by which all human activities are driven.

What we complain of is not, that the men who compose the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or who manage its affairs, act as most men do, or would, in their circumstances; but, that the leaders of political parties, who have given pledges to aid in enacting a Free Railroad Law, do not make their words good; and that members of the Legislature, who were elected under the just expectation that they would favor the measure, go against it. So long as people submit to this faithlessness, either in the political parties with which they act, or in particular members of the Legislature, by whom they are represented, there is, and can be no hope that a proper law will be enacted. The system of special charters will remain, and the best that can be done under it will have to be accepted. It is time this point was generally perceived and appreciated. Kings make concessions to their subjects only when fears of successful or dangerous revolts constrain them. The railroad monopolists will abdicate only when the people strip them of special privileges. So long as the masses of the people are patient under the existing system, or under the treachery of representatives charged with the duty of subverting it and instituting a broader and more liberal one, the monopolists will not relent. A clatter of vituperative tongues will not frighten them.

We made a suggestion for action on the part of the people, touching this subject, independent of party organizations. We do not get favorable responses. Do the people understand that this is their business?

THE Richmond Dispatch has been looking around to ascertain who will be elegible to office under the changed condition of affairs, and is quite cheered to find so many capable persons still left to take charge of public matters. The disfranchisement of former leaders and representative men imposes the duties upon those not disqualified, and consequently the young men of the present generation must take upon themselves the burthen of office. This shows the wisdom of the Congressional action in the premises. It is well for a new set of men to come into power at the South, for they will have less to unlearn than their seniors. Under their guidance the Southern States will much sooner recover from the calamities of the war than under the leadership of the men who brought on the struggle, and will sooner find themselves in harmony with the Northern people.

THE Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, charged with inquiring into what grounds exist for the impeachment of the President, will prosecute their labors during the vacation. Mr. THOMAS WILLIAMS is a member of the Committee and expects to spend a large part of the summer in Washington, attending to this matter. As a jurisconsult, as a statesman, and an orator, he has no superior in the body which he adorns. He has, besides, moral courage to do what he believes ought to be done.

MR. JEFFERSON DAVIS is not likely to be released from imprisonment under the resolution offered to that end in the Senate by Mr. WILSON, of Massachusetts. That resolution was not referred, but lies on the table.

THE Macon (Ga.) Journal takes a sensible view of President Johnson and his course, and gives expression thereto in a forcible way, thus—

> "Andrew Johnson has at last yielded. Thank God for it. He has done us an immense deal of harm; crippled us when our armies were in the field; rejected the terms which Grant and Sherman gave us, and then, at last, has kept sectional hate and animosity stirred up against us by his unwise course and his foolish conflict with Congress and Northern sentiment.
>
> "And now we hope President Johnson's opposition to the Government will cease. He has opposed it so long, and induced our people to oppose it so long, holding out to us the false idea that he would do something for us, that he has done us infinitely more harm than all other men and all other causes combined. But for him we would long ago have been admitted into the Union, and upon far better terms than we shall now be able to obtain. He has been the most effective enemy we have had."

◆

THE work of building a bridge across the river at St. Louis has been commenced. The Democrat says:

> "It is intended to build from Washington avenue to the dyke; on this side the bridge will reach the level of Third street, the railroad tracks thence proceeding by tunnel under the streets to a union depot; on the other side the bridge will be reached by raised approaches. The work will be of stone and iron, and as strong and durable as money and skill can make it. The financial ability and enterprise of the men connected with the work gives assurance that it will be pushed with vigor and success."

PITTSBURGH, May 19, 1866.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith:

GENTLEMEN—During a visit to the West last fall, I contracted chills and fever, which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was partially so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health, having almost entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by fever. At this stage of my condition a friend recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined, but afterwards yielded my prejudices, and, after taking the medicine for several weeks, my appetite returned and with it I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep (from the loss of which I have suffered much,) has never been better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation, in order that others, suffering as I have, may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice kept me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing the beneficial effect of your bitters on me, recommended me to use them regularly.

Yours, very respectfully,
E. BOURNE,

THE INDIANS AND THE WHITE PINE.

Although long known to the aborigines of America, Dr. George W. Swett, of Boston, has brought into shape for convenient use, a most valuable preparation called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which for a number of years has given great satisfaction in the cure of all those ailments dependent on an inflamed or irritated condition of the mucous membranes of the animal organism. For gravel, diabetes, dropsy, chronic bronchitis, nasal catarrh, constipation, when depending on a debilitated state of the intestines, it is one of the most valuable discoveries recently added to pharmaceutical medicine. It is likewise a most valuable compound for diseases of the kidneys and bladder generally, as any one can satisfy himself upon a single trial. Every one knows the healing virtue of the white pine for sores and ulcers, but Dr. Swett has gone to work and prepared from the sweet inside bark of that valuable tree a compound that will meet every indication where the pine would be valuable.

It is confidently recommended for the following ailments:

Diabetes in young or middle aged people;
Diabetes in old people;
Stoppage of the Urine;
The same difficulty in children during the night;
Gravel, Kidney Trouble in old people;
Ulcerated Kidneys, Ulcerated Bladder;
Discharge of mucus or pus, or blood from the bladder;
Bright's Disease of the Kidneys;
Pain in the Kidneys or Small of the Back;
Pain in the Bladder, Heat and Scalding;

PROPOSALS.

PENNSYLVANIA

Agricultural Land Scrip

FOR SALE.

The Board of Commissioners now offer for sale 350,000 acres of Agricultural College Land Scrip, being the balance of the Scrip granted to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the endowment of Agricultural Colleges in this State.

Proposals for the purchase of this Land Scrip, addressed to "The Board of Commissioners of Agricultural Land Scrip," will be received at the Surveyor General Office, at Harrisburg, until 12 o'clock M.,

On Wednesday, April 10, 1867.

This land may be located in any State or Territory by the holders of the scrip upon any of the unappropriated lands (except mineral lands) of the United States, which may be subject to sale at private entry. Each piece of scrip represents a quarter section of one hundred and sixty acres, is issued in blank, and will be transferable, without endorsement or formal assignment. The blank need not be filled until the scrip is presented for location and entry, when the party holding it can fill the blank and enter the land in his own name. Bids must be made as per acre, and no bids will be received for less than one quarter section.

The Scrip will be issued immediately on the payment of the money to the Surveyor General. On all bids for a less quantity than 40,000 acres, one-third of the purchase money must be paid within ten days, and the remaining two-thirds within thirty days after notification of acceptance of the bid or bids by the Board of Commissioners.

JACOB M. CAMPBELL, Surveyor Gen'l,
For the Board of Commissioners.

FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1867.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER, &c.

Before Hon. James P. Sterrett.

This Court met Thursday at the usual hour, nine o'clock, and proceeded with jury trials.

THE MORAN-DONNELLY CASE.

The case of James Moran, indicted for selling liquor on Sunday, was disposed of, the jury finding a verdict of "not guilty, defendant to pay the costs." Thus Donnelly, who was actuated by revengeful feelings, partially failed in this instance, and is afforded little encouragement to pursue other prosecutions he has instituted against the Moran family. Donnelly is now suffering in jail for his litigious proclivity, and it was doubtless this fact that induced the jury to refrain from adding to his burden.

BUYING HIS OWN PROPERTY FROM A THIEF.

At the instance of James McKenna, oil merchant, one William Tate, a drayman, was arraigned on two indictments for larceny. It seems that Tate, a short time since, went to the Allegheny wharf, there loaded his dray with empty oil barrels, which he took to McKenna's place of business, and after there disposing of them, returned to the wharf for another load. Meantime McKenna discovered that the barrels comprising the first load were his own, and that he had purchased from the man who had stolen them. He at once took the necessary steps and had Tate arrested at the wharf in the act of conveying away the second load. The accused put in the "plea" of guilty, and recommended himself to the mercy of the court, which will doubtless be extended in a way that will protect the public, and especially oil dealers from his depredations for some time hence, and give him an opportunity to repent for his transgressions.

BETRAYED HIS TRUST.

James Welsh was indicted for larceny as bailee. He was given in charge a pair of pantaloons with instructions to have them scoured at some establishment where such business is carried on, and when finished to return them to the owner. He had the pantaloons repaired as required, but failed to return them. He pleaded guilty and was consigned to the county jail for thirty days.

TWO OTHER CONFESSED THIEVES.

Peter Crowley pleaded guilty to the larceny of a coat from George Wessell, and was remanded for further consideration.

Casper Feiber, a Swiss, from the city of Glaris, in the Canton of Glaris, pleaded guilty to the larceny, on January 15th, of a pocket book from Walters' boarding house, in South Pittsburgh, the property of John Reigner. The pocket book contained $31.75. Being arrested on suspicion, Feiber, after being duly cautioned, made a "clean breast" of his guilt to Justice Barker, the committing magistrate, which confession he repeated to the court. He also was sent back, the Court desiring to learn further of his history.

PROSECUTOR FINED.

George Wessels, prosecutor in a case above noted, like others at this term, neglected to attend Court, rendering it necessary to issue an attachment for him. For his neglect and contempt, the Court directed him to pay a fine of $20, but subsequently, on pecuniary grounds, $15 of the amount was remitted. Other prosecutors, in like default, may infer from this action of the Court what their fate may be.

THREE-CORNERED ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

L. Purcell, G. W. Backofen and J. F. Routh were the parties in three assault and battery cases tried by one jury. Purcell is a Liberty street liquor merchant, and a short time since Backofen and Routh went in company to his premises, the object being to serve upon him "notice to quit," the property having changed hands. Mr. P. was handed a written notice directing him to vacate the premises, whereat he became much incensed and violent, calling hard names, &c. Routh and Backofen were about leaving, and had passed out of the building, when Backofen, aggravated at something which Purcell had said, returned and "hit him a clip." Out of what occurred arose the prosecutions, an information being made and indictment found against each party. Purcell, being a juror, was one of those called to try the cases, but was of course challenged off. A verdict of "guilty" all round was rendered, as the only means of doing equal justice. Sentence was deferred.

LIKE TOPSY.

John Johnston, alias Brown, colored, tried Wednesday and convicted for the larceny of clothing from Esau Reed, also colored, of East Birmingham, was called up for sentence. He said he was between fifteen and eighteen years of age; had no father or mother or other friends that he knew of; could not read; had never been at school; had been a slave in Tennessee, owned by a man named Lane; had never stolen anything before, and would never do so again. He was ordered to be taken to the House of Refuge.

A TURKEY CASE.

John McCoy, of the city, a market huckster, was indicted for stealing from the Diamond Market, December 24th, a box containing eight turkeys, valued at $2 each, the property of Thomas Ryan, of Fayette county. It was alleged that after taking the turkeys McCoy sold them to John Ryland, tavern-keeper in the Diamond. Subsequently Ryan claimed the turkeys as his property, identifying the box in which they were placed. McCoy was sent for, Ryland being desirous to "get his money back." McCoy denied that the box was the one he had sold to Ryland, but after some controversy McCoy was prevailed upon to pay back to Ryland the amount of money he had received from him. McCoy at the time was under arrest, and was held for the larceny. Subsequently McCoy and Ryan appeared at the office of the Alderman, and the latter expressed a desire to withdraw the suit, stating that he had arranged the matter with McCoy. The Alderman stated bail had been entered and that the case must be settled at Court. For the defense a son of defendant testified that his father, on Christmas day, purchased from Ryan two boxes of turkeys, paying him $28, leaving two dollars unpaid. Another witness testified to seeing McCoy and Ryan in the market together, on the day after Christmas, both a little "groggy;" Ryan was selling turkeys in boxes, and told McCoy to go and take them; McCoy took two boxes which were weighed, and paid Ryan two dollars, the balance due. The information against McCoy was made December 27th. The defense thus set up was that defendant purchased the turkeys which were alleged to have been stolen, but against this it had been shown that McCoy, in removing one of the boxes, told the Market Clerk that he was taking care of it for Ryan. This in turn was answered by the allegation that the sale was not made known through fear of punishment for violating the ordinance relative to huckstering in the market. The jury found a verdict of "guilty," and recommended defendant to the mercy of the Court.

FORGERY OF A SIGHT DRAFT.

Thomas W. Flanner was placed on trial on an indictment for forging a sight draft on New York for $175, payable to his order and chargeable to the account of J. H. Mead & Co., Broadway, New York, with intent to defraud Joseph Dilworth, of the firm of Dilworth, Porter & Co., of this city. Mr. Dilworth testified that the defendant was introduced to him by a Mr. Townsend, and also presented a letter of introduction from a Quaker gentleman of Ohio, after which he (the defendant) presented the draft, saying it was all right, and asked to have it cashed. Mr. D. did not have the money in his office, but endorsed the paper and defendant got the funds at the Citizens Bank. Subsequently, on the same day, it was discovered that Flanner was not "all right," much less the draft, and he was arrested at the Monongahela House, and the money obtained on the draft refunded, Flanner, however, maintaining that the draft was genuine. When arrested in his possession were found blank drafts of the same description as the forgery. Mr. Dilworth visited him, at his request, in the jail. He said, at that interview, that he did not know what made him do what he did, and that he must have been insane. He made a confession of his guilt, but it was excluded by the Court, under the rule of law. Mr. Dilworth although stating that it was out of his power to relieve him, advised defendant that it would be better for him to plead guilty.

On the first count of the indictment it was claimed by A. G. Cochran, Esq., of counsel for defense, there could be no conviction. The draft being dated "St. Louis," in the absence of any testimony to the contrary, it was presumed that the forgery was made there, if forgery it was. The Court so held. The second count charged the uttering of the forged instrument, and upon this a conviction was urged. He first claimed that the draft was genuine, insisted that it was after his arrest, but in the prison he said he did not know what made him do what he did, and must have been crazy. Excluding what else he said, what did he mean by that expression? It was for the jury to say, and they were also to believe the fact established that the draft was forged, and that defendant knew it to be a forgery when he uttered it, before they could convict. Verdict guilty on the second count.

Mr. Cochran desired to move for a new trial, on the ground that "the verdict was against the evidence."

The Court said he might make the motion, but it would be very soon disposed of.

R. S. Morrison, Esq., also of counsel for defense, discovered that there was a third count to the indictment, and there being no verdict as to it, thought the verdict on the second count would be no bar to a second conviction.

District Attorney Duff said if there was such danger he would enter a nolle pros. on the third count.

The Court said it would take care that the defendant did not suffer from any irregularity, and ordered him to be remanded for sentence.

ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE TABLE.

Matthew Keep, a constable, it will be recollected, a week or two since appeared as the prosecutor of John Lutz, also a constable, for compounding a felony. He failed in securing a conviction, and was required to pay one-half the costs. Yesterday he appeared on the other side of the table, (changing places with Lutz,) as defendant in two indictments charging him with "irregularity" in the performance of his duties while constable of the First ward. How he will fare in this reversed position, with his antagonist, Lutz, as prosecutor, will be recorded. As constable it was his duty, after the first of April, 1866, to make returns on the first Monday of each month of persons engaged in the sale of liquor, and prior to that date he was required to make such returns on the first Monday of each term of the Criminal Court. One indictment charges him with omitting and neglecting to return Mrs. Bridget Murphy, or her husband, retail liquor dealers, on the first Monday of March, 1866, and with receiving five dollars from Mrs. M. for such omission. The other charges him with omitting and neglecting to make return of the Murphys on the first Monday of September. Gen. Collier, Col. Duff, (District Attorney,) and J. H. Miller and John C. McCarthy, Esqs., appeared for the prosecution, whilst Keep's interest was looked after by Marshall Swartzwelder and John Coyle, Esqs.

Mrs. Bridget Murphy (wife of Patrick) took the stand and testified to having paid Keep five dollars in March, 1866, not to return her house. She had been subpoenaed in the case, she said, by John Lutz.

Patrick Murphy was called. He testified: Have not been doing much this while; sold whisky, and am suffering for it now. (He is confined in jail.) Saw my wife give Keep three five dollar bills, one after the other, last year; also saw her give him the making of two dresses of calico muslin; he put the money in his pocket and walked out.

Counsel asked what the money was paid for? He replied: "I'll tell the truth; it was not to return us for selling whisky."

Mr. Coyle inquired as to what he said concerning the matter to one Miles? Pat replied—It don't matter what I said outside, or what fabrications they make; I'm here to tell the truth, and I'm going to do it, sir.

The Court—Counsel desires to know what you said outside.

Patrick—It don't matter a hate about that; it has nothing to do with this case.

Mr. Coyle—Do you know Miles.

Patrick—Don't know the man at all, sir; wouldn't know him from a head of sole leather.

The returns of Keep for the months of July, November and December, in which the Murphys were omitted, and those for the months of August, September and October, in which the name of Patrick Murphy appears, were offered and admitted.

This closed the case for the Commonwealth, and Court adjourned till nine o'clock this A. M.

Wonder if That's So?—An exchange says: A young lady named Louisa Blackman has reached her friends in Brooklyn, having escaped from Mormondom where she was taken by her father when a child.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
THURSDAY, March 28, 1867. }

The following are the New York stock quotations for to-day: Gold, 134¾; 1881, bonds, 108⅞; Five Twenties, old, 109⅛; Five Twenties, '65, 107¼; do new, 107⅛; Seven Thirties, 106¼; Michigan Southern Railroad, 76¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 79½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 95½; Erie, 58¼; Chicago and Northwestern, 35¾; do preferred, 64¾; New York Central, 108; Chicago and Rock Island, 96¾.

Things remain in a truly deplorable condition in Pittsburgh. The great strike which betokened so little evil at its commencement, has by its prolongation paralized all branches of industry and brought hard times to our doors. Trade is vainly struggling to keep buoyant under adverse circumstances, but hope is flickering and the near future promises no relief. Collections by retail dealers, who have their claims upon the working classes, have been impossible, and their creditors must wait for the better time coming, which as yet has failed to cast its shadow. Millions of dollars have been thrown out of circulation in this neighborhood by the strike, and no heavy remittances are recieved by the manufacturers. The supply has been exhausted, and orders for iron and glass are turned over to other cities. The streets from morning till night are blocked up with regiments and brigades of the honest laboring masses, who, out of employment, spend the valuable time which, applied to production, would bring prosperity, in aimless idleness. Hundreds of families among the poorer portion of those thrown out of employment, are suffering from want, and indeed, it has been reported that children have actually died from starvation. The fact is sad; it is terrible. And yet there is no prospect for the adjustment of the difficulties between labor and capital. The strike may benefit the workingmen in gaining their point, but it entails upon them much sacrifice and deprivation. The capitalists are suffering pecuniarily and cannot desire to fight to the last ditch. Where both parties are so stubborn and determined, a compromise should be effected. Disinterested parties should be called in to settle the difference in a manner satisfactory to employer and employee. Let the click of our industry once more be heard and the dull times will vanish before prosperity and happiness.

—Compound interest notes are in demand at about the following figures: June, 1864, 17¾@18; do, July, 1864, 17¼@17½; do, August 1864, 16¾@17; do, October, 1864, 15¾@16; do, December, 1864, 14¾@15; do, May, 1865, 12½@12¾, do August, 1865, 11¾@11½; do, September, 1865, 10¾@11; do, October, 1865, 10¼@10¾. There are outstanding of these notes a little over one hundred and forty-three millions. About ninety-nine millions of these mature in 1867. Interest due on these at maturity, will amount to a little more than nineteen millions. The balance of the compounds are all due in 1868, between May 15 and October 16. The bill for retiring these notes, passed by last Congress, limits the amount of three per cent certificates to be issued in exchange, to fifty millions—or rather says that only fifty millions of these three per cents shall be at any time outstanding. Any bank may have three-fifths of its legal reserve in these certificates, if the balance of the reserve is in lawful money of the United States. The old certificates of indebtedness were not like these payable on demand in greenbacks, neither were they permitted to be counted as a part of the reserve.

—The Pittsburgh, Fort Wanye & Chicago Railroad Company have declared a quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent.

—It is stated that a comparison of present prices with those of the beginning of last year shows that breadstuffs have advanced on an average about thirty-five per cent, while dairy products and beef and pork have declined twenty per cent, and groceries about ten per cent.

—The House of Representatives on Tuesday refused to grant leave for the introduction of a resolution declaring that not more than $4,000,000 of the currency shall be retired per month, as now provided by law.

—There is little change to note in the condition of the western money market. At St. Louis the demand is fully up the ability of the banks to supply at 10@12 per cent. Business is generally improving. The demand for eastern exchange is greater than the supply. At Chicago, money is reported as somewhat easier, but the rates of interest are unchanged in the open market—viz: 1@1½ per cent per month. Exchange on New York is scarce, and round lots are sold from bank to bank at 25@40c premium. At Cincinnati, the market is close at 9@12 per cent in the regular way, but outside capital is invested at 12@15.

—The Secretary of the Secretary, in reference to the rumor of false issues of Government bonds and fractional currency, says, under date of the 19th instant, the report "originated with parties who are operating in gold. We have instituted the most thorough and searching examination of the Currency Bureau by the most competent men, and are satisfied that the report is utterly without foundation. We have no reason to believe, nor do we believe, that there has been an over-issue of a single dollar." This is gratifying news, and will much relieve the apprehension caused by the rumor.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
THURSDAY, March 28, 1867. }

The produce markets continue moderately active, there being a very fair demand for most of the leading commodities, while so far as prices are concerned, there are no changes worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—Wheat is in light supply and firm; No. 2 may be quoted at $2,65 to $2,70, and No. 1 at $2,85@2,90. Corn is steady but unchanged; sale of 62 sacks prime shelled at 80. Oats in demand but unchanged; sale of 1 car at 53; 140 sacks at 54; and 250 bushels, in store at 55. Rye may be quoted firm at $1,38 to $1,40—sale of 99 sacks at $1,38. Barley is in demand at $1 to $1,10 for fair to prime spring.

FLOUR—Is firm and fairly active but unchanged. We continue to quote at $12,50 to $13 for Spring Wheat; $14,00 to $15,00 for Winter Wheat; and $16 to $17 for fancy brands. Sale of 200 bbls Spring at $12¾ to $13; and 70 bbls choice ditto, at $13. Rye Flour, in store, $7,75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm with a steady jobbing demand at 10¾ to 10½ for Shoulders; 12 for Ribbed Sides; 14 for Plain Hams; and 16 to 16½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 13 to 13¾, and Mess Pork $23 to $23½.

MILL FEED—Is in demand and firm. Sales on wharf, of 7 tons Shorts at $1,20; 5 tons Middlings at $1,60; 4 tons Seconds at $1,50; also 1 car Seconds, to arrive, at $1,50.

SEEDS—There is a continued fair local demand for Cloverseed, and we can report sales at $8,50 to $8,75. Timothy Seed is quiet but steady at $3 to $3,25. Flaxseed is in active demand at $2,85.

BUTTER—Prime Roll is in demand and we have sales reported at 35 to 38, the latter figure for choice. Common Butter is in good supply and dull.

EGGS—In rather better demand and may be quoted firm at 19 to 20.

POTATOES—As the supply is pretty well reduced, and the demand is improving, the market is a shade firmer, though prices, as yet, are unchanged. Sale of 1 car Peach Blows at 75.

HAY—Prime Timothy Hay is in demand, but common is very dull. The former may be quoted at $24 to $25, on track and wharf.

BEANS—Prime White Beans are selling in store at $2,75 per bushel.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
THURSDAY, March 28, 1867. }

CRUDE—The market continues rather quiet but very firm, and while there is nothing of a special character apparent on the surface, there is a pretty strong under current, and there are more buyers than sellers both for present, as well as future delivery. We can report a sale of 1000 bbls to be delivered on first water, (40 to 45 gravity) at 7; 1000 for May, seller's option, at 7½; 500, to arrive, at 12c, bbls included, and 75 bbls, on spot, at same price. There was also a sale of some two thousand barrels reported on the spot, at 6⅞—we presume, it was light gravity, as seven cents was freely offered for good gravities, on the spot, and holders were asking 7¾ to 7⅞ for May—very little offering below 7½. Late advices from Oil City quote Crude at $2,30 to $2,35 at that point, which is a considerable advance within the last few days.

REFINED—There was quite a brisk demand for bonded oil to day, both for present and future delivery, but the extreme views of holders has a tendency to retard operations. We have but a single transaction to report, one thousand bbls, standard white, for May delivery in Philadelphia, at 28; there were orders in this market probably for ten thousand barrels to-day, but refiners refused to contract at the prices offered, and hence, but a single sale, the one above noted. Free oil is dull and unchanged.

ARRIVALS.—But a single arrival of oil reported to-day, twenty-one hundred barrels for Fisher & Bro.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
THURSDAY, March 28, 1867. }

CATTLE.

"The market for cattle has again been very quiet during the past week, the transactions in the aggregate reaching only about two hundred head, while so far as prices are concerned, there have been no changes worthy of special notice. The fact is, there were no cattle here of any consequence, nor has there been for several weeks, and it is also true that there were but few buyers in attendance. So far as the cattle trade is concerned, the transactions at the Allegheny Yards have been much larger than at the Central Yards for several weeks past. As will be seen by reference to the sales, 7¾ is the highest price reported; it should be borne in mind that there were no transactions in good cattle, and prime to extra may be fairly quoted at 8 to 8,50, and possibly 9 cts—one drove averaging 1650 lbs, was held at $163 per head.

SHEEP.

There is a continued good demand for this class of stock, and prime fat mutton Sheep have still further advanced. Quotations may be fairly given at 6 to 8¼ gross, for common to strictly prime, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market.

HOGS.

There was a fair business done in Hogs, there being a steady shipping demand, though compared with last week, prices have undergone but little change. Extra fat corn-fed Hogs, suitable for Philadelphia market, brought a slight advance, selling from 8,50 up to 8,60, but New York Hogs ranged from 7¼ to 7¾, about last week's prices.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about at a stand last evening with eight and a half feet in the channel by the Allegheny marks. The Allegheny was reported stationary at Oil City yesterday with but twenty-four inches in channel at that point. The weather was clear and cold, and very favorable for outdoor business.

The Echo cleared for Oil City last evening, with a very good trip, and the Ida Rees No. 2 will be the first boat down.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The fine freight steamer R. C. Gray, will depart this day (Friday) positively, and will take heavy freight to Cincinnati at 10c; to Louisville at 17c, and light freights in proportion.

W. B. ANDERSON, Captain.

The Robert Moore, from Portsmouth, with a good trip, including a fair proportion of metal, is the only arrival we have to report.

The Kate Putnam, from Louisville, is due here this morning, and the Ezra Porter, from Cincinnati, may be expected in to-day.

Capt. Reed is thinking of running the Columbia down to Wheeling, and there load for St. Louis. At times, there is considerable freight at Wheeling; but, it is a poor point for passengers, and especially for St. Louis. At this season of the year Pittsburgh is the best point for steamboats in the Western country for passengers, as there are always large numbers of families emigrating to the West.

The Glasgow left for St. Louis yesterday with an excellent trip. She had pretty near all the freight she could take, and about one hundred and fifty passengers, and engagements below.

Some scoundrel ripped open a number of sacks of wheat on Wednesday night, which were left on the wharf by the Argosy. As yet the perpetrator of this malicious and contemptible trick has not been discovered.

The staunch and reliable Robert Moore, Capt. Wash. Kerr, leaves for Portsmouth and all intermediate points this evening at 4 o'clock. Passengers and shippers will bear in mind that Capt. Kerr always leaves on time.

The towboat A. J. Baker, belonging to J. Sharp McDonald, left for Cairo yesterday, with six barges and one boat of coal, and the Lion cleared for Cincinnati with eight barges.

Mr. William H. H. Miller, who has been engaged in the coal business for a number of years past, and is one of the owners of the towboat Star, has bought an interest in the newspaper Standard, published at Uniontown, Fayette county, this State, and will remove to that place shortly, and engage in the newspaper and job printing business. Mr. Miller is an old typo, and worked as compositor in this office for a number of years. We wish him sucess.

The Bellevernon, Capt. Darragh, is next on the list for St. Louis and Missouri River, and will leave early next week without fail. The Kenton, Capt. J. H. Dunlap, is filling up steadily, and will be the first boat out for New Orleans. The Leclaire, Capt. Saint, and the Luella, Capt. Haslett, are announced to leave for the Upper Missouri Gold Regions on Saturday. We are requested to say that the Luella will leave as above announced without fail.

The Maggie Hays, Capt. D. L. Hendrickson, is the regular Saturday packet for Cincinnati, leaving promptly at noon. The Maggie offers superior accommodations for passengers, and is in charge of courteous and experienced officers.

Ezra Porter left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday, and the Leonora No. 2 was advertised to follow on Wednesday. The Minnie enroute from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, was at Evansville on Tuesday, and the Armenia was reported taking on ore the same day below St. Louis.

The Emma No. 3 and the Wauanita arrived at New Orleans on Thursday of last week. Capt. Tom Rogers, formerly of the ill-fated W. H. Osborn, is on a visit to New Orleans.

Capt. Frank Marratta, of the Kenton, has assumed command of the Cincinnati and St. Louis packet, Golden Eagle. The Kate Robinson is loading at Cincinnati for Saint Louis.

The towboat Rover, enroute from Saint Louis to Pittsburgh, with a cargo of iron ore, passed Louisville on Monday.

An Evansville telegram, under date of Tuesday, says: The Great Republic laid here all day, took a large amount of freight and left at 5 p. m. with her guards on the water. She was visited by thousands, and was crowded all day. All are loud in admiration of her interior. She is full of passengers, and gets 4000 sacks of corn at Mt. Vernon.

The Louisville Democrat of Tuesday, gets off the following: People along the river below here who don't want their skiffs, flats boats, &c., to follow the Republic down the river, had better make 'em fast. She drew a big crowd here, and will draw everything loose in the river after her. She's a sucker. She is. Why was the Great Republic on Sunday like a lumber yard? Because everybody who went there could get-aboard (if they wanted to.

The steamer Ollie Sullivan was purchased a few days ago at Nashville, by Capt. John R. Hugo, Lycurgus Chaffin and Thomas E. Hugo, of Evansville, for the sum of $5,000. We do not know where they design to put her.

Captain Rufus Edwards, aged sixty eight years, a native of Louisville, Kentucky, died in New Orleans on the 22d inst. The New Orleans Boatmen's Benevolent Association attended the funeral in a body.

A dispatch in the New Orleans Times, from Montgomery, Alabama, says the Coquette was snagged, not exploded, and that the boat and cargo are a total loss, but no lives lost.

The Lavacca, Texas, Commercial learns from Capt. Spaulding, of the Lizzie Lake, that the canal which was cut by the State a number of years ago, has been so far washed out by the high waters of the last season, that small boats can now pass through the canal, around the rafts, and ascend the river as far as Wharton. In 1846 the Kate Ward, which was built above the raft, went up the river to the falls above Austin, but the droughts of late years have rendered the river totally unfit for steamboating.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Gazette of Wednesday: The Julia No. 2, now receiving freight for Nashville, will, on her next trip, proceed up the Wabash river to Grayville, Illinois, where she has engaged almost a full load. The P. W. Strader was yesterday furnished with a lock-up safety valve, of the American Manufacture. The Emerald arrived from New Orleans, and Ida Rees from Pittsburgh. Capt. Charles Beers left for Pittsburgh last night to bring the Luella down. She is destined for a mountain trip. The Nora has her shingle up for Pittsburgh. She will go out in charge of Capt. Sam Shuman. Capt. H. G. McComas, formerly of this city, is now in command of the St. Louis and New Orleans packet Atlantic. The Glendale and Shamrock are both loading at St. Louis for this port.

The Carrie, from Pittsburgh, arrived at St. Louis on Monday last. The St. Louis Democrat of Tuesday says: Large quantities of freight are going on board the mountain boats. These odd crafts are very prominent at the wharf as to numbers. Several, not thought of a few days since for the long trip, are having their hurricane roofs shortened and narrowed, and other curtailments made, which render them more suitable for the voyage. A few years ago, the departure of one boat during the season for Fort Benton, or the mouth of the Yellowstone, was an event of general interest. Now, of some fifty steamers at the wharf, about one half are announced, and many of them loading for the mining regions of the upper Missouri.

A late issue of the Memphis Avalanche, says: We must enter our protest against imposition which has been saddled upon our boat owners by the Board of Underwriters of Memphis. A steamboat coming from other ports with her inspection papers should not be required to go through another inspection here, at a cost to the boat of $50 for each visit. We know that in some cases this inspection is necessary, but as the insurance companies make all the money in the matter, they should pay the inspection fees, and not require the boats to do so. It was only the other day that the General Quitman was detained several hours, and came near having to leave without a trip, because she would not submit to this extortion. This packet never had an objection raised against her by the underwriters of New Orleans, and had her inspection papers from that port, but they were of no avail, and she had to succumb to the iniquitous rule laid down by the underwriters of this city. We suppose the Leo will have to undergo the same ordeal when she arrives.

WHEREAS, It is desirable that the present Market House in the Fifth Ward should be rebuilt and enlarged for the greater accommodation of the citizens of the Fifth and Ninth Wards of the city: therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same, That, whenever the citizens of said wards shall subscribe the amount necessary for rebuilding the present market house, in said Fifth ward, and for the purchase of any additional ground which may be necessary for the enlargement thereof, they shall submit to Councils, for their approval or amendment, the plan or plans on which they purpose to erect the same; and when the said plan or plans shall have been approved by Councils, the said subscribers shall appoint three of their members to act in conjunction with a committee of the same number to be appointed by Councils, who shall constitute a committee, to be known as the "Joint Building Committee of the Fifth Ward market," whose duty it shall be to carry out the provisions of this ordinance and to see that the said market is erected in conformity with the plans approved of by Councils.

Said Committee shall be appointed to act until the first regular meeting of Councils in January, 1868, or until their successors shall be duly appointed, and during the month of January, in each year hereafter, the Councils and the said subscribers shall appoint a Committee to hold their offices and execute the duties therein enjoined until their successors shall be duly appointed.

SEC. 3. Said subscribers shall be authorized to erect a new Market House on the ground now occupied for that purpose, and to purchase additional grounds if the plans approved by Councils shall require it. All contracts for the purchase of grounds and for the work and material for the erection of buildings shall be made by said subscribers in such manner as they may see proper, subject to the approval and ratification of the Joint Building Committee of Fifth Ward Markets; provided, that the city shall be in no manner bound for their fulfillment.

SEC. 4. If any additional ground shall be purchased for said buildings or market purposes, the title to the same shall be made to the Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh, and the property shall be vested in said Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh, subject to the provisions of this ordinance, and upon the fulfilment of the terms herein provided, shall become vested in said Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh absolutely.

SEC. 5. When said Market House shall have been erected in conformity with this ordinance, said Joint Building Committee shall establish rules and regulations for the goverament of the same and submit the same to Councils for approval or amendment, and it shall be the duty of the Joint Building Committee to elect a Superintendent of said Fifth Ward Market House, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of said Committee, to take charge of said building, attend to opening, closing, cleansing and repairing the same, letting out and shutting off the gas, collect all rents and pay all moneys so collected to the Treasurer of the Fifth Ward Market House Association, and also perform all other duties which may be assigned him by said Joint Committee.

And the Treasurer of said Fifth Ward Market House Association, after first deducting the cost of repairs and other necessary expenses, shall pay over the proceeds of said Market annually, in the month of December, to the respective subscribers of said Market, in proportion to their respective subscriptions, until they shall be fully reimbursed the principal and interest of the amounts respectively subscribed and paid by them.

SEC. 9. That whenever the provisions of the eighth section of this ordinance shall have been fully complied with, the said Market, or Market House, with the grounds attached to the same, shall become the property of the city, together with the revenue and emoluments arising therefrom, and the duties and powers of said Joint Building Committee shall cease and determine.

SEC. 10. That the accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer of the Fifth Ward Market House Association shall be exhibited annually to the Auditing Committee of Councils, under oath, to be by them audited and reported upon in the same manner as the city accounts usually are.

CONSUMPTION

Our son, JAMES PAINTER, some three years ago was afflicted with consumption of the lungs for which he was discharged from the army. He was examined by four army physicians, who all agreed that he must die with the disease. We brought him to Dr. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, (now 120 Penn street,) who, after sounding his lungs, commenced to treat him, and cured him sound and well. He is now well and has been so for the past three years. Others afflicted in like manner can likewise be cured.

JAMES PAINTER.
MARY ANN PAINTER.

Temperanceville, Sept. 5th, 1866.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1858.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP. I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eighteen months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle, I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think that it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE,

Witness—R. M. KERR. Peebles township.

A case of five years' standing cured by Dr. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1859.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

WHOOPING COUGH.

Below will be found a certificate from Doctor M. DUPUY, one of our most respectable dentists, in regard to Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup. The Pectoral Syrup is also an infallible cure for every form of cough and cold to which we are liable.

PITTSBURGH, June 28, 1862.

DR. KEYSER: Dear Sir; I have for a long time been opposed to advertised or patent medicines, and it is with reluctance that I recommend any of them. The consideration, however, that I am doing the community a service, induces me to overcome my objections, and to publicly recommend your Pectoral Syrup. We have kept it in our family for the last five or six years and have given it for coughs, such as are produced by colds, &c., with the effect of alleviating or entirely arresting them. During last winter our children were exposed to the infection of whooping cough, and each one of our three boys was attacked with what we believed to be that malady. We administered your syrup liberally, and the result was, that the whooping cough lasted with neither of them more than ten or twelve days. I hope others will at least make a trial of your medicines in such cases, as we have found it beneficial. Yours,

M. DUPUY, No. 21 Wylie street.

HERNIA OR RUPTURE.

It will be observed that we have published for some time past an advertisement of Dr. George H. Keyser, of 140 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa. in reference to Trusses and other mechanical appliances for the cure and relief of hernia, rupture, besides various broken down conditions of the human body which are usually beyond the reach of medication. Dr. Keyser has given this branch of the business great attention for several years past, and we think we are justified in saying that he comprehends it thoroughly. You can get at his store, Shoulder Braces for weak breasts, Elastic Stockings for varicose veins, Pile Props for the cure of Piles, and, in fact, every variety of mechanical appliance. Dr. Keyser is the inventor of a Truss for the radical cure of Hernia or Rupture, so perfect in its parts and so comfortable to the wearer, as to elicit the admiration of all who may need such an appliance.

He has recently been in communication with some of the ablest and most experienced truss surgeons in the United States, and feels satisfied that all those who have been plagued or annoyed with ill-fitting and uncomfortable trusses, can be accommodated by calling at his consulting rooms, No. 120 Penn street, or at his Medicine and Truss Depot, 140 Wood street. Office hours from eight to eleven A. M., and one to four P. M.

DEAFNESS AND THE EAR.

Many persons have rested content in the belief that skin and ear diseases, however troublesome, will wear out of themselves, for that no remedy will avail in effecting a cure; in this way many persons have suffered through half a dozen years, who might easily have been relieved at the onset in as many weeks. So also with regard to the ear, a prejudice has obtained that the ear is too delicate an organ to be treated, or as is often expressed, TAMPERED WITH; hence hundreds have thus remained deaf for the greater part of a lifetime, who might have been greatly relieved, and in many instances, completely restored to their hearing, had proper assistance been timely applied for, as may readily be seen by a perusal of the following certificate. We also take occasion to remark that the testimonial comes from a source close at hand, in Allegheny City, where, upon inquiry, any one interested can satisfy themselves of its truth:

PITTSBURGH, July 28, 1864.

DEAR SIR:—I take pleasure in adding my testimony to that of others in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment of deafness. My son had been afflicted for five years with deafness produced from scarlet fever. At times he could not hear at all; and could only understand as we would motion to him. His speech had also become affected. Having tried other remedies without receiving any benefit, I applied to Dr. Keyser, and under his treatment he has entirely recovered, and can now hear as well as ever he did.

JOHN B. GARRET,
No. [illegible] Beaver street, Allegheny.

To Dr. Keyser, 120 Penn street.
